

11th Annual Summer Choral Camp

June 13-19, 2010 at Eureka College

This is a Summer Choral Camp that provides campers with a comprehensive and accelerated choral learning experience including participation in both large and small ensembles, voice classes, private voice studio, music reading, music history and music theory. As part of the curriculum, campers will study and perform the All-State audition pieces as a means to help students prepare for fall IMEA auditions. A maximum amount of individual instruction and small group lessons will be at the core of the program. Enrollment will be capped at 60 on a first come, first served basis.
